

Australia – Program Details

Program year	The current Friends & Family program year runs from 1 September 2022 through 31 August 2023.
Eligibility	Three (3) unique friends per program year Three (3) unique family members per program year
Program offering – friends	3-month membership – digital with the ability to attend workshop
Program offering – family	12-month membership – digital with ability to attend workshop
Definition of family for the purpose of this policy	The family definition in Australia is: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Partner (married or not, including same-sex partnership) ● Children 18 years of age and over ● Parents (including step-parents) ● Siblings ● In-laws (including parents, siblings etc.)
Tax considerations	There is no tax liability for the employee or family/friend. WW will pay any tax liability owing on this offering.
Activation of friends and family codes	Codes issued must be activated before the close of the relevant program year. This means that codes issued during year one of the program must be activated by the end of day 31 August 2021 else they will expire. Codes will be valid for 3 or 12 months from the date of activation depending on whether it is a friend or family code.
Attending a meeting	With the family and friend memberships, your designated person will have the ability to attend WW workshops.
Sign-up support for friends and family	If your friend or family member needs any sign-up assistance once they have received their codes via email from you, they should contact - Customer Care: 13 19 97
Manual Activation Link: https://www.weightwatchers.com/au/friendsandfamily	